Dear Sir,

Re: THE KING v. Patron, Travis
Our File No. CACR3628

---

This is to acknowledge receipt of your Notice of Appeal filed on October 27, 2022. A copy has been provided to the Crown pursuant to Rule 27 of The Saskatchewan Court of Appeal Criminal Appeal Rules. The transcript for proceedings in the lower court has been ordered and a copy will be provided to you or your legal counsel upon receipt from Transcript Services.

If you choose to act in a self represented capacity on appeal, please advise me as soon as possible by phone call or letter. As self represented litigant you have the right to file a written argument setting out the reasons why the decision appealed from should be set aside. If it is your intention to have a lawyer represent you on appeal, it is your responsibility to retain counsel. You must re-apply to Legal Aid for legal representation on appeal even if Legal Aid has acted for you at trial. I urge you to do so as soon as possible. If you do not qualify for Legal Aid, you may qualify for court appointed counsel. If you wish to apply for court appointed counsel you may contact our office and request the forms to make your application for court appointed counsel. These forms may also be found on our website at www.sasklawcourts.ca. If you do not qualify for legal aid, and were unsuccessful in receiving a court appointment, you may qualify for pro bono counsel. Call Pro Bono Law Saskatchewan at (306) 569-3098 to determine if you qualify for their program.

This appeal will be scheduled for hearing to the next available Court sittings once all the material is filed. Arrangements will be made for you to be present at the hearing.

Sincerely,
AMY GROOTHUIS
